

INTRODUCTION

The Global Alliance for Buildings and Construction gas (GHG) emissions are attributable to buildings during

The Code Council staff is also undertaking an internal road (then the building as a whole) is required to make informed coordinated set of solutions that address the entire building resilience measures contained within the suite of I-Codes highly regarded organizations on how we can align our work damage in the face of a hazard do not need to be rebuilt and how efforts within the building industry interface with

WHOLE LIFE CARBON

Buildings and the materials used to construct them often and the characteristics of different material choices to standard would allow for designers and owners to balance

The Code Council is engaging organizations both in the

MATERIALS AND PROCESSES

codes and in a manner that is consistent across materials fabrication in a fact3 <00540005004E005900580005>

¾

¾

to decarbonization requirements for the Board s